Elder Keith Ellis

On Account of Sin

[Heb 12:8 KJV] 8 But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sons.

I dont believe in boasting or gloating about being a sinner. I hate the sin I have to contend with. I believe it to be a fact that all of God's people have to deal with sin condemned in their flesh until their bodies are be changed on the morning of the resurrection.

Now, chastisement comes on account of sin, not because we are sinless, but because we are sinners. All of God's children experience this. God chastens us that we might be partakers of His holiness. So my point is, if you believe you are sinless, there would be no need of any chastisement, which means you are a bastard, and not a son.
