In Trust With The Gospel

Elder Keith Ellis

Pricked in the Heart

[Act 2:37 KJV] 37 Now when they heard [this], they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men [and] brethren, what shall we do?

Man will not repent of his sin against God until he receives conviction of The Holy Spirit.

On Peters occasion to preach to the Jews, the national sin of crucifying The Lord Jesus was the sin they were guilty of. We too are guilty of this in as much as our sins placed The Lord on the cross.

Yet God may mete out a measure of grace to bring conviction regarding even the smallest sin. After all, the wages of sin is death. Even the sin of stealing a piece of bubble gum.

Over the past 6 months or so I have been convinced that there is a lack of conviction with God's people. I have been earnestly praying for the conviction of The Holy Spirit, and it began with The Lord convicting me on a matter very strongly. I have not had conviction on that level since my initial experience of grace 30 years ago. Now I am beginning to see it with others in the church. Praise God.

Would to God we were all pricked in the heart. It starts with us individually.

Pray God would drop a good healthy measure of Holy Spirit conviction on the leaders of this nation.
