In Trust With The Gospel

Elder Keith Ellis

What if I believed in gospel regeneration?

If the eternal destiny of everyone was dependent upon my preaching to them, how could I waste my time by taking a job to provide for my family if the eternal state of souls were in the balance.

How could I spend a dime on a new car, home or any other luxury if money were needed to send me or others to preach the gospel?

Would God hold me accountable for the souls that would be lost if I took a vacation?

Could I ever speak anything besides the gospel message for fear that someone could be dying and going to hell if I slacked off.?

Thank God that such a system is a lie and a steaming load of bull manure.

Our God is MIGHTY TO SAVE and does not need my help or anyone else's help. He trod the winepress ALONE.

The true purpose of preaching the gospel is to feed God's sheep with knowledge and understanding of how great things God has done for them, and how He expects us to walk here in this world.

It does not give eternal life.
